The Worst Rblx.Trade Forum Era

I think we can all agree what the worst forum era was. It was the Daily Drama Era. This era is the worst era in RblxTrade history and probably will always be. The era actually started because of me. I used to create drama a lot. People say it was daily, but I'm not sure abt that. Anyways, the era ended at the end of May. I honestly regret starting this. I got way too much hate during this era. It will def be well known in RblxTrade history (Not in a good way.) If you are new to the forums and ask someone who was active during this era, they will give an instant and negative response imo.

Stop it plz. I can report it to D0XT and I will. The site in my opinion, should not have that edgy content. Even if it is meant to be a joke, it is still disgusting. If you have discord and you see 18+ threads, report them to any mod/creator. The threads are inappropriate for kids on this website. Stop it plz. Everyone who is in the drama where I got Jd banned for posting adult content, end it. You all think that if your friends do it, it's ok. However, when somebody else does it, it is the biggest deal ever.

An Example of one of the big dramas caused during this era's time frame.

A lot of people were mad at me primarily for causing this era and being rather immature during this era. This era also led to a lot of arguments, big dramas, and flame wars (Not caused by me.) For example the lionswordleo12 drama where lionswordleo12 did stuff very similar to what I did. People treated this drama like a war until we made him apologize. This drama did contain a lot of hypocrisy.

Thanks for sticking with me, we'll put an end to this faagot.
Tem is a fuucking loser, I have exposed his alt accounts yet he's denying it. I'll take him on and make him quit as this is war, and the people who hate him will be victorious. You better be scared, Tem. I'm coming for you.

A really notable thread made by Leo during this time frame.

Anyways, enough talking about this drama. Back to the era. This era earned me most of my hate. If I didn't cause this era, I would be in a much better spot. This era lasted the average forum era time frame (1 month.) However, it was one of the biggest eras that caused a lot of damage to the site.

Noova announcing the end of this trash era, and the birth of a great era, the Reformation Era.

We are lucky that the Reformation Era was not as bad as the Daily Drama Era. The Reformation Era did have some downsides like the Fredboy dox.

I hope you liked this article as I spent about the whole hour writing this. I also hope that this gave people more info about this dark time.
